

Cliki-Plus makes engineering models that really work. Even more detailed, even more exciting, it's designed to make every young modeller feel like an engineer or architect. It makes cranes, planes, bridges, see-saws, swings, roundabouts, factories and all manner of working models using engineering principles.

The engineering development of Cliki

Cliki-Plus develops skill and imagination. You can even draw up plans before starting, just like a real engineer or architect. Look left and you'll see the sort of fascinating models you can make with Cliki-Plus. And while you build, a whole new world of engineering excitement is opened up. Below are some of the basic Cliki parts. See how easily they snap together to form girders, etc. Instructions come in every set.

HOW TO MAKE A GIRDER

Snap units and frames together to form girders of any length.

FIXING GIRDER TO BASEPLATE

Girder snaps into a column footing which locks securely into baseplate.

SPECIAL CLADDING FOR GIRDERS

- A round surfaces for chimneys, towers, flat surfaces.
- B truss panels for girdered finish on cranes, bridges, etc.

D BRIDGE ROADS.

Bridge decking fits onto bridge framework. Crash barriers snap into decking sides.

E CRANE PULLEYS

fit onto end of jibs.

CLIKi ADD-ONS

A range of Cliki units made up into sensible Add-On packs (bricks, tiles, doors, windows, etc.) to increase your building power. All at pocket money prices.

The new realistic builder by Meccano

Cliki builds houses, hotels, shops that look real. Piece by piece they're put together and with every piece a little lesson is learnt about how and why. No lesson was ever such fun. Each set is complete in itself and has wheels and axles to build pushalongs too.

has these special features

Here are a few of Cliki's lifelike details. Every building you make will contain lots of these features. That's what makes Cliki buildings so real, so fascinating.

baseplates that lock together with special locking points—cannot fall apart.

How to build with CLiKi

Fit in doors and windows and lock in position with bricks as you are building.

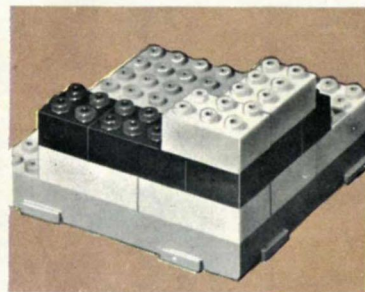

Build your walls just like a brick-layer. Lock bricks over one another.

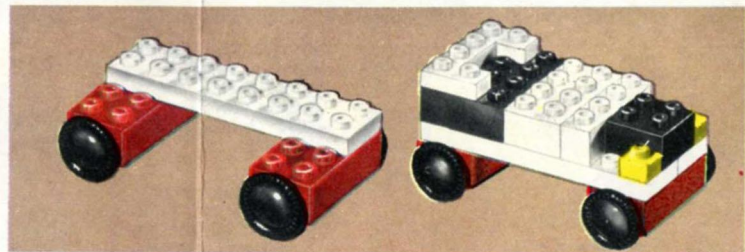

Joining walls lock into main walls in alternate layers.

Simply place one roof tile over another and finish with roof ridging piece.

Layers of alternate bricks lock to form corners.

Build any shape wheeled vehicles you like. Put wheels in position on ends of axles and lock front and back axle blocks with long 16-point bricks.
